INTERNATIONAL COMMERCIAL ARBITRATIONStudy of a mock case*
under the ICC Rules of ArbitrationSubject

Amidst the latest developments at the ICC International Court of Arbitration, participants will develop first-hand experience and knowledge of the ICC Rules and practice of International Commercial Arbitration, essential in international business today. Drawn upon the experience of renowned arbitrators in a multicultural and international environment, the training will meet the practical needs of those involved in international trade and will simulate an ICC arbitration, highlighting differences in cultures and legal practices.

Working methods

- Study of a mock case within working groups limited to roughly 10 participants. The mock case will be sent to participants before the training so that they can read the facts, prepare for working in groups and identify the contractual clauses which cover the events mentioned in the facts.
- Technical and practical presentations with international experts – including key persons involved in the drafting and implementation of the ICC Rules of Arbitration.
- Debate amongst participants and speakers during interactive plenary sessions.
